D. S. KEMP & Co's ADVERTISEMENTS.

THEIR BUSINESS is under the management of D. S. Kemp, eight years partner in the late firm of ROGERS & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists; and has been specially organized for the dispensing of prescriptions, and the importation and manufacture of pure drugs, chemicals, and pharmaceutical preparations. Every appliance has been provided both in the laboratory and dispensing department to ensure correctness and rapidity in compounding medicine, and to facilitate the preparation of remedies of guaranteed purity.

The dispensing of prescriptions is carried on by a staff of trained assistants under the immediate supervision of the manager, and is controlled by a system of check which, he ventures to think, will secure public confidence.

MEDICINE CHESTS of every size and form; from the large regimental pattern suited for Contractors, to the small Leather and Oak chests for private use.

Persons travelling or residing at a distance from dispensaries should never be without one of these useful requisites, which may, at any time, be the means of saving life.

ELLWOOD & SON'S Travelling Parties will find them invaluable; Chests are fitted when required with waterproof covers and straps for protection and portability.

Besides having there particular patterns made in England, D. S. K. & Co. employ their own mechanics here to alter or construct chests for special purposes as required.

In the absence of special directions from the physician, Kemp's Medicine Chest Companion, written expressly for the chests, supplies full and simple instructions for the use of each remedy.

REPRESENTATIVES.

In China, Calcutta, Madras, Colombo, Mauritius New York, New Zealand, Manilla, New Orleans, Beunos Ayres, Rio de Janeiro, Monte Video, &c.

WE beg respectfully to solicit the commands of MESSRS. GENERAL MERCHANTS, and EUROPEAN RESIDENTS OF WESTERN INDIA, &c. for our WINES, SPIRITS, and CORDIALS. Business in Europe has for the last FIFTY YEARS been confined to the Wine trade, and being Shippers on the London and Bordeaux market, we claim to be in a position to meet the requirements of connoisseurs; superior to all competing Agencies in Bombay.

Relying on receiving Parties will find them invaluable; Chests are fitted when required with waterproof covers and straps for protection and portability.

We subjoin our LIST OF SELECTED WINES for this Market, and beg to intimate:—

1st. That we cannot execute orders for less than 1 dozen quarts, or 2 dozen pints of either one of them; Liqueurs excepted; these in not less quantities than ½ dozen pints or quarts.

2nd. That our Wines and Spirits are procurable from every respectable Parsee Shopkeeper in Bombay and at Out-stations; they, however, fix their own selling prices.

3rd. That our quotations are for delivery from our Godowns, and that we do not take the risk of subsequent breakage. Nor can we undertake to deliver Wines, &c. in Bombay.

4th. That samples must be paid when applied for.

TO BE PUBLISHED,
WITH THE CO-OPERATION OF THE MUNICIPAL COMMISSIONER AND PERIODICALLY AS THE BUSINESS OF THE MUNICIPALITY MAY DETERMINE, THE BOMBAY
MUNICIPAL RECORD FOR 1868.

THE great importance and rapid increase of municipal business, as well as the wide-spread interest felt by the public in all matters relating to the Municipality since the passing of the Act of 1865, point to the necessity of publishing the Municipal business in a more convenient and systematic form than that presented by the files of a daily newspaper or the documents disjointedly issued from the Municipal office. At present neither the Justices nor the public can refer without much trouble to the past business of the Municipality, and it is to place within their hands in an easy means of reference to current affairs (and, it is hoped, to remunerate the projector, as well) that "The Municipal Record" has been designed "The Municipal Record" will contain a full report of the meetings of the Bench of Justices, (the speeches to be previously revised as far as possible by the speakers themselves); all papers which may be issued by the Municipal Commissioner and officers of the Municipality generally; and in factevery scrap of information (such as the recent opening of the Nul Market, and the present strike of the Butchers) relating to the Municipality. The publication will be a kind of official municipal "Hansard" with this difference that, in addition to the regular proceedings of the Bench of Justices, it will contain a file of the papers published during each year and the miscellaneous business of the municipality generally.

The page will be of the same size as a page of Chambers's Journal. The date of periodical publication will depend on the Bench meetings and the issue of municipal documents. Its parts may be published twice in a month, or monthly, or not for two months as the circumstances may hereafter determine. It will be a leading object to issue the proceedings of each Bench meeting within a few days after the meeting has taken place. At the end of the year a carefully prepared Index will be issued and the volume may be bound and preserved for future reference. It is impossible to predict the size of the volume, but it is expected that it may run to 300 or 400 pages. The price of the work will be Rupees Twelve per annum, which on an average is equal to only one Rupee per month—a small sum for so great a boon.

It is proper to state that though the work will be published with the sanction and co-operation of the Municipal Commissioner, the Municipality has no pecuniary risk or interest in it.

Orders for the work by the Justices and the general public will be registered at the "Bombay Gazette" Press, by the proprietor of which it has been projected.

The Bombay Gazette

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1868.

At the present moment there are some thousands of Enfield rifles lying useless in the various arsenals of India. What is to be done with them? Are they to be converted into breech-loaders for the European soldiers, or are they to be merely retained for illustrations of the history of the improvements in fire-arms during the 19th century? This question is one which is well worthy of attention, but there is another which still more merits the consideration of the military authorities, and that is, whether any change shall be made in the armament of the sepoys. We are aware that the greatest possible amount of prejudice exists on this point, but all improvements have to cut their way through prejudice. At the beginning of the century there was on the part of some a great prejudice in favour of pig-tails, fifty years later there was a partial but not the less strong prejudice in favour of stiff-stocks; yet pig-tails and stiff-stocks have notwithstanding ceased to be. Almost all the best authorities, including the "twenty years in the country, and know the language men," of Napier, are in favour of arming the sepoy with nothing better than Brown-bess. There is no reservation in their expressed opinion that it would be downright madness to arm the sepoy with any other weapon than that which has for some years been discarded by the armies of nearly every civilized power in the world. Yet General Hay tells us that even the British soldier when armed with the old smooth bore musket could only hit an 18 feet square target once in nineteen times. It is needless to add that the British soldier is far steadier and stronger than the sepoy and therefore even with this cumbrous uncertain weapon able to obtain results quite beyond the reach of the weaker and more excitable sepoy. Therefore it comes to this that the sepoy is furnished with a fire-arm which by common consent has been pronounced obsolete and comparatively useless. But, say the advocates of this practice, the smooth bore musket is superior to the weapons in the hands of any Asiatic foe with whom the sepoy is likely to come in contact, he is therefore sufficiently well armed as regards any legitimate foe, and to provide him with a breech loader or even an Enfield would be to raise him to a formidable rivalry with British soldiers in case of another mutiny. In spite of the honoured names by whom this theory is supported, we are compelled to express our opinion that a more foolish illogical assertion was never made. A very little consideration will convince all unprejudiced people that such is the case. Surely if you incur great expense for an army it is desirable to make it as efficient as possible. If the sepoy as at present armed is superior to other Asiatics, that is obviously no reason why we should not by the bestowal of an improved firelock increase his superiority still more. Now, superiority it must be remembered means easier victories and therefore less loss of life, or a smaller army which is tantamount to reduced expenditure. If say 100,000 native infantry are now sufficient to preserve internal tranquility and defend the country against foreign invasion, that number might be considerably reduced were they armed with a more efficient weapon. At first sight it would even appear that if you provide the sepoys with a weapon say five times more destructive than the old musket you might reduce the native army to a fifth of its present strength. The strict proportion between the numbers of men and the efficiency of their weapons cannot however be maintained for reasons which we have not here room to discuss. It is evident, however, to the meanest capacity that if you improve the weapons of the sepoy you can largely reduce the native army. It will also we think be unanimously admitted that such would be a very desirable result. Why then do we shrink from so obvious and beneficial a step? The answer is that we are obliged to keep up a large native force, but that we have so little trust either in their military fidelity or in the stability of our Government that we arm them so as to make them comparatively inefficient, and further watch them with a large and expensive European army which we do not find it too easy to recruit. It is difficult to conceive a more lamentable state of affairs than this. The men who should constitute the strength of the empire are positively its greatest weakness; and observe too the logical consequence of this argument—Inefficiently armed as they are the sepoys are dangerous, therefore do not arm them at all. What private individual would keep a watch dog for protection against robbers but draw his teeth for fear of his turning on the family. The obvious course would be not to keep a dog whose temper was so uncertain, and whose attachment was so little to be reckoned, but to exchange him for one whose confidence could be gained and whose teeth were not a source of dread to his own master. Now we are in this country in a somewhat similar position to that of the householder troubled by a mastiff of a ferocious and capricious disposition. We say "a somewhat similar position" because in spite of the cry of alarmists we are of opinion that with selected officers possessed of power both to reward and punish promptly, the confidence and attachment of the sepoys can be secured. Therefore we need not change our watch dog but only treat him in a manner better suited to his habits and ideas than the present centralizing and pseudo European method. Above all we consider that nothing is more calculated to alienate the affections and diminish the moral value of the sepoy than to exhibit such distrust as now marks our treatment of the native army. The servant who knows he is suspected by his master of a tendency to a particular vice is very apt in desperation or from the effect of morbid feelings to justify the suspicions entertained of him, at all events it is very unlikely that he should feel much affection towards his employer. Will the sepoy prove an exception to the rule and return loyalty for distrust? Again, it is notorious that among the many artificial ingredients which compose the courage of a body of soldiers confidence in their weapons is one of the most important. Yet from the sepoys we carefully withdraw that ingredient. The more destructive are the weapons with which soldiers are provided and the greater the loss they inflict on the enemy, the less they suffer themselves. What must the sepoys think of the paternal Government which deliberately and wilfully exposes them to greater risks than those which their European comrades fighting by their side undergo? "But" say the advocates of the existing system "all this is very fine, but self-preservation is the first law, and it would be suicidal to provide the sepoys with better arms than those at present served out to them." This we conceive to be a fallacy as we shall seek to show in a very few words. In the first place, as regards the propriety of arming the sepoy with the Enfield musket. Formerly 60,000 British soldiers armed with Enfields, dependent for reinforcements on the long sea route, with but a limited railway system for their transport from place to place in India, and an equally imperfect telegraphic communication with England were able to keep 120,000 sepoys in check. Now it is certainly not too much to expect that 50,000 English soldiers armed with Sniders, able to send a message to London in a few hours, to receive reinforcements at Meerut in five weeks would equally be able to restrain those same 120,000 sepoys even if the latter were armed with Enfields. The natives can easily obtain or manufacture smooth bore ammunition, but the Enfield bullet is somewhat beyond their powers. We however go even further and boldly advocate that Snider rifles should be issued to the sepoys. All experience and especially that of the American war proves that save in the hands of steady troops closely superintended by good officers, and supplied by means of an elaborate and delicate system of administration with abundance of ammunition, breech loading rifles are rather a disadvantage than the contrary. Now steadiness, skilful officers and a good military administration are precisely what a body of sepoy mutineers would be deficient in. But even if such were not almost certain to be the case and assuming that the sepoys were steady, well officered, and possessed of a good administrative staff, where on earth could they obtain their ammunition? We should not be so foolish as to allow them to seize our arsenals and they would be utterly incapable of manufacturing the delicate ammunition required for the Snider rifle themselves. Consequently the very rapidity with which they could discharge their rifles would be destructive to them. The cartridges in their pouches and perhaps a small stock from the regimental reserve once fired away, they could get no more, and their rifles would be nothing better than mere shafts for bayonets. It is evident, therefore, that the sepoy armed with the Snider rifle while twice as confident and at least ten times as efficient against a foreign foe as he is at present, would be, if anything, less formidable as a mutineer. In the first case he would be well officered, and supplied by a skilful staff drawing on the exhaustless resources of the Government with as much ammunition as he might require. In the latter case he would be armed with a weapon whose very excellence would render it useless to him. These propositions cannot we believe be controverted. We therefore trust that we may not have to wait long before we see a change in the system which at great expense trains a body of men in the art of destroying their foes and then when they are trained deliberately refuses them the means of turning their training to the best account.

THE Pall Mall Gazette:—The statistics of travel between France and England in 1867 are worth recording. No less than 462,708 persons went to and fro; 202,183 by Calais, 152,931 by Boulogne, 88,294 by Dieppe, and 19,300 by Havre. Only 19,707 crossed between England and Belgium, via Ostend.

THE same:—The commission which has for some time been sitting in the Foreign Office in Paris, to consider a proposal made by the Viceroy of Egypt to abolish the existing capitulations relative to the protection of the rights of foreign residents in that country, and establish in their stead mixed tribunals of Europeans and Egyptains, has now presented its report, which is decidedly adverse to the proposal. A memorandum is in preparation by the French Government on the subject, and the question is to be submitted to the seventeen European Governments which have consular representives at Alexandria. M. d'Oubrey, the French Consul General, who has been recalled by his Government, will, it is said, be dismissed from his post on account of the attitude he has assumed in this matter.

LONDON LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

LONDON, 18TH JANUARY.

THE meeting of the Manchester Educational Conference this week is by far the most practical and effective demonstration that we have yet had in favour of a system of thorough national education in England. The clamour to educate the masses is raised, as I noticed in my last letter, by men of all parties and of the most discordant opinions. Some there are who profess with Mr. Lowe to be exceedingly alarmed at what may be the political prospects of the country, if those whom they affect to call "our masters" are allowed

THE steamer Asia was hauled into dock yesterday.

WE understand that the Hon'ble Mr. Justice Gibbs will return from circuit in the middle of next month.

AMONG the passengers who arrived in Bombay yesterday by the mail steamer, was Lieutenant Colonel Robinson, Director of Indian Telegraphs.

PHILIP HENRY MATHEW, second mate of the British ship Zenobia, was yesterday sentenced by Mr. Naua Morojee to be imprisoned for a fortnight in the County Jail for embezzling about three gallons of porter out of a cask.

WE have to correct an error which appeared in our issue of yesterday, in the case of attempted theft at the bungalow of Dr. Niven at Colaba. We are informed that the prisoner was not one of Dr. Niven's servant, nor was he ever in that gentleman's employ.

A DECREE was given by Sir Joseph Arnould at the High Court yesterday, in favour of the Colaba Press Company as against Bharmul Purbut, for the sum of Rs. 2,266, with interest and costs in respect of pressing bales of cotton at the rate of Rs. 2 per bale. The defendant did not appear.

YESTERDAY an inquest was held at Sewree, touching the death of one Mirja, a cart-driver. On Monday afternoon last a policeman while going his rounds saw the dead body of the deceased lying behind some buildings on the shore at Sewree. The Coroner recorded a verdict to the effect that the deceased died from the effects of excessive drinking.

THE third detachment of the 3rd Dragoons embarked yesterday morning from Carnac Bunder. The Albertine and Iriwell, with the 3rd Dragoons on board, left last night, towed by the s. s. Ellora. The steamer Sunda, towing the condensing barge Hyderabad, also left last night. The Decision, in tow of the Bombay Castle, is expected to leave to-day.

Elmstone Rs. 10.

THE Hon. Mr. Justice Westropp yesterday, on the application of Mr. Taylor, gave decree in favour of the Mazagon Land and Reclamation Company against Cassumbhoy Khetsey for Rs. 2000, owing on a call of Rs. 1000 on two shares in that Company by the defendant. Interest on that amount was also granted at 12 per cent. per annum from 2nd July 1866, when the call became due, to date of judgment, with costs and interest from date of judgment at 6 per cent.

The plaintiff held a mortgage on a property of the defendant, and Mr. Strong asked His Lordship to order the sale of the property. His Lordship said he had no power to order the sale; the plaintiff held the power to sell by the provisions of the mortgage, and could at once exercise his power. Interest was also given on the amount at 9 per cent. from 13th October last.

DEWJEE DHURMAJEE, the tindal of the boat Rahimtoola, who had absconded from Bombay after having caused the death of a boatman named Canoo, and against whom a verdict of culpable homicide amounting to murder was returned by the jury at an inquest held on the body of the deceased on the 31st ult., was apprehended by a policeman at a place called Dahud and brought to Bombay on Monday last. The accused was yesterday placed before the Acting Senior Magistrate of Police on a charge of having, on or about the 26th ult., caused the death of Canoo. His Worship remanded the accused to jail till to-morrow (Thursday.)

ON Wednesday afternoon about five o'clock, as Mr. A. H. Wildy, of the Indian Peninsula, London and China Bank, was driving a dog-cart along Hornby Row, the bullocks attached to a bullock cart, which was already too much on the "wrong" side of the road, slued suddenly round on Mr. Wildy's horse, which one of them gored in the heart. The horse (which had been purchased we believe that very day) died after a few minutes. The cartman, who is said to have been walking by the side of his bullocks, but to have had insufficient control over them, in addition to being on the "wrong" side of the road, is to be prosecuted in the Police Court; and a civil action is being brought against Mr. Callianjee Sewjee, the cartman's master, for the value of the horse.

AN adjourned inquest was held yesterday at the Coroner's office, Dhobie Talao, concerning the death of one Fullseer Abdoola. On the 25th ultimo, the deceased, a coolie, was stationed on board the ship Moderation on the upper deck by the main hatchway, and his duty was to keep the railway bars that were being passed down into a boat alongside close by the side of the hatchway. Suddenly he fell into the hold on the stones which formed the ballast. He was sent to the Jamsetjee Hospital where he died on Sunday night last. The jury found that the deceased died from injuries received by falling down the hold of a ship, but that though it was probable the deceased fell accidentally, there was not sufficient evidence before them to say that he did so.

MR. THOMAS CRAWFORD yesterday sued Ragoonath Damodhurjee before the Hon. Mr. Justice Westropp for Rs. 3880, the amount of a promissory note signed by the defendant payable on demand of Mr. William Johnston. Interest was also asked for from 8th June 1865 at 9 per cent. Two securities were offered by the defendant, but were refused by the plaintiff. It was stated by Mr. Mayhew, the counsel for the plaintiff, that his client would give the defendant credit for Rs. 100 which had been paid on account of the note. After some conversation between his Lordship and Mr. Mayhew on a legal question, His Lordship advised the parties to come to some compromise. An arrangement was then come to between the parties by which they agreed to a verdict being given for the plaintiff for Rs. 2000 with costs. Mr. Farran appeared for the defendant.

YESTERDAY an adjourned inquest was held at the office of Dr. Hewlett, Coroner, to inquire into the circumstances connected with the death of one Narotum Goverdhun. It appears that on the night of the 23rd ultimo a buggy driven by one Dajeeba Pandurung Josey was going from the direction of the Mombadevi chowkey towards Agiary lane, a ghorawalla being on the step behind. When the buggy arrived opposite the building where the Branch of the Bombay Bank was situated it struck against the stone steps; the ghorawalla was jirked off, and the driver pulled the horse over to the left side of the road. When the buggy struck, the deceased was coming up against the wall on the left side and the buggy came into contact with him and knocked him down. It then came into contact with the wall on the left hand side, injuring two other persons. When it struck against the wall the harness broke and the horse got loose from the shafts. Before the accident the driver was urging the horse to go on faster, and was using the whip, and the animal was galloping. The deceased was taken to the Jamsetjee Hospital, where he expired on Saturday last. The jury came to the conclusion that the deceased died from the effects of injuries received by his having been knocked down by a buggy, which was driven by Dajeeba Pandurung Josey in a manner so rash as to endanger human life.

A SUIT brought by the Indian Peninsula, London and China Bank against Jeewun Jugjeewun to recover Rs. 1,662-1-11, due by defendant in respect of calls on ten shares in the plaintiffs' company, was heard before Sir Joseph Arnould, at the High Court yesterday. Mr. Leith was for the plaintiffs; the defendant was unrepresented. The ten shares were originally allotted to defendant, who paid the first call on them. On July 25, 1864, a second call was made for Rs. 100, payable by the 15th August; and on the 2nd Nov. of the same year a third and final call was resolved upon, a call, namely, for Rs. 50, and payable by the 21st November. It was in respect of these two calls that this suit was brought, and interest was charged on the amount due. On 2nd Nov. 1865 it was resolved by the Directors that if the calls then due were not paid with interest at the rate of 15 per cent. by the 30th of the same month, the shares on which the calls were not paid would be extinguished under section 31 of the articles of association. The shares in the name of the defendant were consequently extinguished on the 19th December 1865, and the defendant had therefore ceased from that date to be a shareholder. The facts of the case being proved, the learned Judge said he did not recollect of any previous suit in this court for the recovery of calls on forfeited shares, but looking at the terms of the articles—though he would have preferred that authorities had been cited—he was inclined to think that the party was liable, and he therefore gave a decree for the amount claimed, with costs, and interest at 6 per cent. on the judgment. The section which makes the shareholder liable in respect of calls, notwithstanding the extinguishment of the shares, is sec. 30. Mr. Keir, solicitor for the plaintiffs, said he believed similar suits had been brought in connection with the Mazagon Reclamation Co.

ARRIVAL OF THE GOVERNOR.

THE s. s. Salsette, with His Excellency Sir Seymour Fitzgerald on board, arrived in harbour at 12 o'clock on Monday night, from Kurrachee. His Excellency landed at Apollo Bunder this morning, about eight o'clock, and proceeded to Government House. A salute was fired from the saluting battery in honour of his arrival. The following gentlemen accompanied His Excellency from Kurrachee—Sir A. Grant, the Hon'ble Mr. Mansfield, Major-General Tremenheere, Colonel Kennedy, Lieut. Colonel Fife, Captain Filgate, Captain Graham, Dr. Cruikshank, Mr. Bulkley, Mr. Gonne, and Mr. Wassodew.

(BEFORE R. H. SHOWELL, ESQ.)

FURIOUS DRIVING.—Bhowanee Pursoo, a coachman, was charged with driving a vehicle in a manner so rash and negligent as to indicate a want of due regard for the safety of others, and thereby injuring a coolie named Raghoo. On the 29th ultimo the complainant was carrying a load of grass on his head at Mahim, when suddenly a gharry came from behind and he was knocked down. He did not know who was driving the gharry. He was taken to the Jamsetjee hospital, where he remained till Sunday. It appeared that the driver called out "pice, pice," twice, but the complainant did not hear, and he was knocked down. His Worship convicted the prisoner and sentenced him to pay a fine of Rs. 25, or, in default, to be imprisoned for a month in the County Jail with hard labour.

A SIMILAR CASE.—John Hart was charged with driving a buggy at Mazagon in a rash and furious manner and thereby injuring one Mathew Augustine. The prosecutor, it appeared, was passing the large Church at Mazagon on Monday afternoon last, when a buggy, which was driven by the defendant, came against him, and he was knocked down against the wall. He got up himself, the buggy went off, and it was brought back to where the complainant was. He was walking by the side of the road. The defendant was driving the buggy and a ghorawalla was running holding the horse. Complainant was hurt on his body and face, and was taken to the Jamsetjee hospital. The defendant denied having driven the buggy rashly, and declared the statement of the witnesses a got up one. He was not warned by the police against driving rashly. The complainant was crossing the road when the accident occurred. His Worship found the defendant guilty of the offence, and sentenced him to pay a fine of Rs. 50, or in default to undergo two months' rigorous imprisonment in the County Jail. His Worship ordered Rs. 10 out of the fine to be paid to the complainant.

SPORTING.

BOMBAY RACES—1868.

THIRD DAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 11.

There were only two races to-day, the two others which were on the card being uncontested. They were both worth seeing, however, and the crowds of people who were at the course were probably not disappointed. Amongst the gentlemen in the verandah of the Byculla Club we noticed H. E. the Governor, who yesterday arrived from Kurrachee. The Governor's Band played during the time in the compound of the Club.

With regard to Kohinoor, the winner of the "Bombay Merchants' Purse," we have to correct an error we made in naming him the other day in connection with the "The Byculla Stakes." The Kohinoor which ran for "The Byculla Stakes," was not the Kohinoor which quarter of an hour before won "The Criterion Stakes;" they are different horses, though both of the same description (this being the circumstance that misled us.) The latter is "the Stranger's," the former Mr. Field's.

Today's races were as follows:—

1ST RACE.—BOMBAY MERCHANTS' PURSE. Value Rs. 500. A Handicap for all Arab Horses. 2 miles. Entrance 10 G., Ms., and 5 G. Ms. for not standing the Handicap. 3 Horses from separate stables to start, or the Purse will be withheld.

Three horses entered, namely, Capt. Joy's B. A. H. Dervish, Calton (8st. 12 lbs.); the Stranger's G. A. H. Grey Leg, Brewtey (9st. 4lbs); and Mr. Field's Kohinoor, Ahmed (8st.) This was a pretty fair and well-contested race, though not a marvel for speed. After the start Dervish took the lead and kept it till the horses were some distance beyond the Stewards' Stand, Grey Leg coming up close behind her, and Kohinoor lying in the rear. Grey Leg gradually closed up with Dervish, and about half way between the Stand and the one mile post passed her. Dervish, however, got again to the front, but after the horses had emerged from the hidden part of the course, the spectators were surprised to find them pretty much in a cluster. In rounding into the straight they were still about neck and neck,—but now came the tug of war. The greater part of the race had been done in a canter, but by this time the animals were striking out vigorously, and afforded a fine spectacle as they dashed along to the winning post. Kohinoor got to the front, and came in two lengths ahead of Grey Leg. Dervish being several lengths further in the rear. The first half mile was run in 1 min. 4 sec., the mile in 2 min. 4 sec., and the two miles in 3 min 59 sec. We believe Grey Leg had been the favourite, and that there was a good deal of betting on the race.

2ND RACE.—THE COLT'S PLATE.—Rs. 300 from the Fund, added to a Sweepstakes of 10 G. Ms., H. F, and an additional 10 G. Ms. for each Colt declared to start. Weight for age. 1½ mile. For all Colts and Fillies 4 years old and under, imported after the 1st September 1866. Winners once to carry 4 lbs. extra, oftener 7 lbs. To close and name on the 1st June 1867.

This was a walk over, the only horse being H. H. Aga Khan's G. A. H. Khusro.

3RD RACE.—THE MALET STAKES. Rs. 400 from the Fund. A Handicap open to all Horses that have started during the Meeting. 2½ miles. 20 G. Ms. Entrance. 5 G. Ms. F. for not standing the Handicap. Entrances to be made by 8 A. M. the day before the Race. Weights to be announced by 12 o'clock, and declarations as to standing or not to be made with the other nominations of the day.

This also was a walk over, the only horse being Captain Joy's B. A. H. Dervish.

4TH RACE.—THE LOTTERY STAKES.—A Handicap. 1½ mile. Rs. 300 from the Fund. 5 G. Ms. Entrance.

For this race, the following horses entered:—H. H. Aga Khan's G. A. H. Maneghee, Syed (8 st. 7lbs.); Alli Asker's C. A. H. Tehran, Brewtey (8 st.); and the Hajee's B. A. H. Upas, Ahmed (8 st. 2lbs.) This was another passable race. At first Maneghee led, followed by Tehran second, and Upas third. Upas and Tehran closed up and ran neck and neck for a good distance, Maneghee still keeping the lead. Bye and bye, however, the three were seen almost together, and when they came round into the straight it was hard to tell which would be the winner. Maneghee, which had kept the lead so long, now fell into the rear, and the struggle between Upas and Tehran became a severe one. Tehran was the victor by a neck, and Maneghee came in close behind Upas. The race occupied 2 min. 59 sec. Upas had been the favourite, and seems to have been heavily backed.

HEADS OF INTELLIGENCE.

(Overland Mail, Jan. 18.)

THE excitement on the subject of Fenianism has somewhat subsided in England, but in the South of Ireland there is still a good deal of uneasiness.

A man named Lennon who has been arrested in Dublin is believed to be the man who shot the two policemen in that city, and to have been planning a "spring campaign." He has been committed for high treason.

Lord Strathnairn has just completed a careful inspection of the military stations and ports in the southern parts of Ireland.

A prosecution has been instituted by the Government against the proprietor of the Irishman, for the publication of seditious articles.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

WE have just passed through one of those quiet uneventful weeks which fully realize the adage that "no news is good news," but which are the despair of journalists. The great Fenian excitement has for a time subsided; but the actual state of Fenianism itself is not to be judged by these temporary results. The evil has all along been spasmodic in its action. Its most violent paroxysms have generally broken out when least expected, and they have always been succeeded by a lull. Whether the lull is a lull of exhaustion, or a lull of caution, it is never very easy to determine. But as every violent demonstration is followed by increased vigilence and activity on the part of the authorities—so we may not unreasonably suspect the latter. It may be hoped, however, that in future, the reliance which has hitherto been placed upon the speedy collapse of preventive and precautionary energy in the ranks of the guardians of the public peace, will be found to be misplaced. We do not feel at all confident of this. It is not our way. As soon as the more palpable symptoms of danger disappear, we think that the danger itself has passed away; so we pile arms and turn in the guard. And this is all the more likely to happen again and again because we are so prone to hush up past instances of manifest neglect. We have never yet got to the bottom of the story about the warning that is said and to have come from Ireland with respect to the threatened attempt to rescue Burke and Casey by blowing in the walls of the Clerkenwell House of Detention. Yesterday was pubished a letter, written a month ago, by the Home Secretary to the chairman of the Middlesex magistrates, thanking him for what he had done to prevent the rescue of the prisoners. "I am directed," wrote the Under-Secretary, "to state that he has great satisfaction in thanking you for the energy and promptitude that you showed on that occasion by at once attending to the letter of caution which was addressed to you from this office. All the circumstances which have since transpired tend to show that it was owing to such conduct on your part that the daring attempt to rescue the prisoners Burke and Casey was frustrated, and thereby the main object which Mr. Hardy had in view was attained. In Mr. Hardy's opinion, great credit is due to you for the steps successfully taken to prevent the escape of the above-named prisoners." It is satisfactory, at least, to know that one man did his duty in the emergency that had arisen. But the extraordinary part of the affair is that it is being assumed that the prisoners were to be rescued by blowing in the walls of the prison, the only means of preventing their escape, which seems to have occurred to the authorities, was by keeping them out of the way of the explosion One would have thought that some one might have hit upon the more elementary process of preventing the explosion itself. But no one seems to have hit upon such a device as this; so a whole street was blown into ruins, and a number of people were killed or maimed and mutilated for life. Now, what Mr. Secretary Hardy calls "all the circumstances which have since transpired" most assuredly "tend to show" the extraordinary inefficiency of the police; for yesterday it was shown in evidence, at the adjourned inquest on the bodies of some of the people killed by the Clerkenwell explosion, that an ineffectual attempt had been made to blow down the prison walls on the day preceding that on which the crime was actually committed. The barrel of explosive matter was there, but the match would not burn, and so, for a little time, the attempt was frustrated. As no precautions had been taken, and nothing more than usual no-vigilance exhibited, of course nothing was known of this first abortive effort. It does not, indeed, appear to have occurred to the authorities that any other result than the rescue of the prisoners could attend the threatened explosion, so a number of people were blown into eternity, and a whole street was destroyed.

The actual facts in connection with these Fenian conspiracies which the week has developed are but few. Burke and Casey have been removed to Warwick, where their presence has created considerable excitement; and in Ireland, a conspicuous Fenian leader named Lennon has been committed to take his trial on a charge of high treason in leading the Fenians in the rising at Sepasside. He is said to be a deserter from the 9th Lancers. There has been an alarming report in Cork, to the effect that the Fenians had conspired to blow up the barracks, by igniting a vast quantity of explosive materials in the railway tunnel which passes under them. This was in all probability nothing more than the surmise of some excited brain, which conjectured the possibility of such a movement, or of some mischievous fool who propagated the story as a hoax. People of the latter class ought to be put in the pillory as mischievous incendiaries, and we are not quite sure that we would spare the former. Some day, perhaps, an ingenious alarmist may suggest a dangerous idea to the Fenians, which would not otherwise enter their heads

The Italian question remains stationary. The French not only continue to occupy Civita Vecchia in force, but they are stated, to be "fortifying it strongly." Meanwhile, the heart of the Italian nation is said to beat as eagerly as ever with the old desire for Rome, and it is doubted whether the Government of Victor Emmanuel will be able much longer to hold the passion of the people in restraint. We learn at the same time that Garibaldi has "turned poet"—a manifestation which would seem to be all in the interests of peace.

"The Emperor," we are told, "learning that the warehouses of the Boulevards-Pistes of Paris are crowded with articles, generally of first necessity, particularly bedding, pawned by working people and small tradesmen since the beginning of winter to supply their pressing wants, lately caused inquiries to be made on the subject. The result is that his Majesty has issued orders to the effect that these poor people can receive their property back without any payment, and the police have given them notice to that effect." Only imagine the result of such a proceeding in London! Think, if in the middle of winter, all the beds and blankets and warm clothing, pawned by our poor people just at the time when they are most wanted, were to be restored to them by royal order. We hear in England, under our mild constitutional Government, of wretched people, men and women, or whole families, starving and naked, in bare garrets or cellars—dying from cold and hunger. Everything belonging to them has gone to the pawn-shop—and having nothing more to pawn, they die. The work of redemption may, probably, in such a case be small in Paris, to what it would be in London; but even in the former city, such a restoration of pledged property was a glorious New Year's gift from the Emperor to the Poor.

The embalmed remains of the Emperor Maximillian have just arrived at Vienna. It was a chivalrous sentiment which impelled the Emperor of Austria to recover all that was left of the mortal state of his brother, and we are bound to respect it. But it has revived the memory of one of the saddest chapters of modern history. It is impossible not to compassionate the fate of the murdered prince. He appears to have been a singularly gifted man—brave, intelligent, amiable—much loved and much respected. He was forced into an impossible position and lo! the results an emperor slaughtered—an empress distraught. And these are the results of the imperial policy of France.

THE NEXT INDIAN FINANCE MINISTER.

(The Overland Mail, January 18)

IT is stated in the papers, and apparently on good authority, that the post of Financial Minister in India has been offered to Mr. Childers and declined. Mr. Childers is a Whig, if not a Radical. He was associated, as one of the Secretaries of the Treasury, with the Ministry of Lord Russell and Sir Charles Wood; and he is said to be eminently qualified to perform the duties of the office proposed to him. The offer, said to have been declined on the score of domestic circumstances, is highly creditable to Sir Stafford Northcote, who has thus shown himself to be above the littleness and the selfishness of party, for he might have sacrificed thereby a golden opportunity of providing for one of his own following. Perhaps he may still sacrifice it by another offer of the same impartial kind. Commenting on the vacancy and the means of filling it, the Spectator says:—"A strong man is imperatively required out there just now, for Sir John Lawrence does not understand finance in the least; the new division of budgets among presidencies wants extreme care, and there will sooner or later be a mess with those 'balanced' amounting to a catastrophe. India wants, and, as we believe, must shortly have Exchequer Bills, or some day the Government, with its revenue as prosperous as that of England, will stop for want of sixpence in the till. Would not Lord Hobart go? It would be a shame to send the fittest man in England—Mr. Stansfeld." We concur in the opinion thus expressed, that England cannot afford to lose Mr. Stansfeld; and for something of the same reason we may say here that the appointment is one not unlikely to go a-begging among the leading statesmen of England. The money is worth having; but when we have said this, we suspect that we have exhausted the catalogue of inducements; and no man who is worth having would go out only for the money. There is a great dearth of rising statesmen at the present time. Mr. Stansfeld is certainly one—Mr. Childers perhaps, is another. The former got a few years ago what may be called a political "cropper," but he is none the less likely to lead in the great steeplechase of fame. In truth, it may teach him caution and do him good. He has sown his wild oats, and if undoubted ability, unquestionable integrity, earnestness of a high order, a persuasive manner and (last, not least) a mellifluous voice, can bring a man into the front rank of Parliamentary statesmen, Mr. Stansfeld is sure to come to the front. If the times had been different—if the opportunities of distinction in England had been fewer—there might have been something tempting in this Indian Chancellorship of the Exchequer. Mackintosh and Macaulay went to India, and Charles Buller went to Canada. But rising men have no need now-a-days to expatriate themselves—for there are but few to jostle them in the race for fame. Why cannot India herself, out of the ranks of the "service," draw a competent Chancellor of the Exchequer? Has she never produced a good financier since the time of St. George Tucker? England is seeking help from General Balfour. Cannot the Indian Civil Service produce one equally good after his kind?

FENIANISM.

(The Home News, January 18.)

THE CLERKENWELL OUTRAGE.

THE seven prisoners charged with complicity in the Fenian conspiracy, and in the Clerkenwell outrage, were again brought before Sir Thomas Henry, at Bow-street, on Monday, Jan. 13. The prisoners were brought to the Court in the prison van at an early hour in the morning. Their arrival caused little or no excitement. There was no crowding in the street, and the ordinary passengers (never wanting in so busy a thoroughfare) took little more heed than if the van had simply arrived with the usual batch of remanded prisoners. Even the escort of mounted police (though, no doubt sufficient in the event of any emergency) was somewhat reduced from the numbers of the imposing cavalcade we have described on previous days. Timothy Desmond, William Desmond, Nicholas English, Jeremiah Allen, and Ann Justice were placed at the bar (as before) on the charge of wilful murder of the persons killed by the explosion at Clerkenwell; and O'Keefe, who has hitherto stood charged with treason-felony only, being placed in the dock beside them. Mr. Giffard, in explanation, said, that in consequence of information which had come into the possession of the Crown since the last examination, he proposed to charge the prisoner O'Keefe with wilful murder. Some of the evidence taken was of a very important character. Facts were adduced to show that Burke was aware of something to be attempted in the nature of an explosion, and that he expected it on the preceding day, as, when the prisoners were exercised, he fell out of the ranks at a certain point took his boot off as if there were a stone in it, and knocked it against the wall. This was just after the clock struck four, and immediately afterwards a white ball was thrown over the wall as though to announce the postponement of the attempt. It further appeared from the evidence of a boy named Holgate that a barrel was brought on that day to the wall just in the same way as that which was exploded the next day. The police had also discovered from whence some at least of the explosive material was obtained, but the chain of circumstances in respect to that matter is yet incomplete. It appeared that a man ordered 2001b. of blasting powder on Dec. 4 at Curtis and Harvey's, Lombard-street, which was delivered as requested on the 6th, in four barrels, at a greengrocer's shop kept by a Mrs. Martin, in the neighbourhood of Golden-square. One barrel was left there, and the purchase-money, £3 7s. 6d., paid by a man who called himself Smith. Another man with a truck took the other three barrels and conveyed them elsewhere. A good many surrounding details were narrated, but who Mrs. Martin and Smith are did not transpire; neither was the powder traced further, the counsel for the prosecution at that point asking for another remand, which was granted.

THE FENIAN PRESIDENT ROBERTS.

We read in the 'New York Tribune' of January 1:—At yesterday morning's session of the Fenian senate, Mr. James Gibbons, of Philadelphia, tendered his resignation as vice-president of the Irish republic, and General O'Neill was elected to fill his place. In the evening President Robert's formally tendered his resignation, and General O'Neill succeeds to the office, according to the constitution. The following is President Roberts's letter:—'Headquarters, Fenian Brotherhood, No. 10, West Fourth-street, New York, December 31, 1867. To the Senate of the Fenian Brotherhood. Gentlemen and Brothers: I have the honour to resign the presidency of the Fenian Brotherhood. It is a source of deep gratification to me to know that, in surrendering the important trust committed to my charge during so long and so trying a period, neither the interests of the Fenian Brotherhood nor the honour of the Irish people have suffered at my hands, and that at no period since my election to the office of president has the organisation been so strong in numbers or its resources so great as at present. And now, gentlemen, that our official relations have drawn to a close, permit me to express for you, as well as for my brother members at large, a friendship begotten in mutual respect, preserved by a common spirit of patriotism and fraternity, and cemented by our sacrifices and united struggles in a just and righteous cause. With a fervent hope that similar sentiments will ere long animate the hearts of every true son of Ireland, I have the honour to remain yours, fraternally, William R. Roberts.'"

THE TRIAL OF BURKE, CASEY, AND MULLANY.

Mr. Coleridge, Q. C., made an application to the Court of Queen's Bench on the part of Burke to remove his trial to the Central Criminal Court, on three grounds—viz., that the Murphy outrages in Warwickshire might have left a feeling which would be unfairly adverse to him in the minds of the jury: secondly, that the impossibility of the prisoner makes the question of expense very material to him, and, the trial, if taken to Warwick, would add greatly to the cost of the defence; and thirdly, that in London the prisoner would have the advantage of being tried at one circuit only for counsel. It not being known whether the other two prisoners committed with Burke joined in the application, and also whether the Attorney-General, on the part of the Crown, objected to it, the court ordered the application to stand over until another day. On Jan. 15, Mr. Fitzjames Stephen applied for an order to have the trial of Casey and Mullany removed from Warwick to London. This application was precisely similar in form to that made by Mr. Coleridge on behalf of Burke, and it was supported by nearly the same arguments—the poverty of Casey, the fact of the principal witnesses in his favour residing in or near London, and the probability that a Warwick jury would be even more influenced by theological hatreds than one impanelled in the metropolis.

COMMERCIAL AND MONETARY.

LONDON, SATURDAY MORNING, January 18.

THE supply of money continues to be excessive, and far beyond all commercial requirements. The discount market is therefore quiet. Choice three months bills are taken at 1⅞ to 1½ per cent., and the applications at the Bank of England at 2 per cent. are consequently few.

In the Stock Exchange money is likewise very abundant, and there has been little demand for loans on English Government securities, even at ½ to 1 per cent.

The return of the Bank of England for the week ending Wednesday, Jan. 15, compared with that for the previous week, shows the following changes:—

Circulation issue	£36,003,735	Increase	£44,685
Circulation active	24,324,770	Increase	90,915
Public deposits	3,324,627	Decrease	426,292
Other deposits	23,009,437	Decrease	416,170
Government Securities in Banking department	14,569,046	Increase	200,000
Other Securities in banking department	17,396,823	Decrease	904,081
Coin and Bullion in both departments	22,086,213	Increase	26,143
Seven-day and other Bills	680,691	Increase	35,655
The rest	3,268,557	Increase	37,964
Notes in reserve	11,678,965	Decrease	46,230
Total reserve (notes and coin) in banking department	12,761,443	Decrease	64,772

The Bank's resources have been trenched upon by some considerable withdrawals of deposits, both on Government and on private account, while, at the same time, its holding of securities has been increased by 200,000*l.*, through its transactions with the Chancellor of the Exchequer. In consequence, however, of the advances on private securities showing a net decrease of 904,081*l.*, the diminution in the reserve is only 64,772*l.* During the week, on balance, the Bank parted with about 23,000*l.* in gold for exportation, yet the above return shows an increase of 26,143*l.*

The weekly return of the Bank of France shows the following changes:—

Coin and Bullion	Increase	£68,000
Bills Discounted	Decrease	1,026,500
Notes in Circulation	Increase	925,000
Private Deposits	Decrease	613,500
Advances	No change
Treasury Balance	Decrease	170,000

The coin and bullion shows a small increase, but the commercial demand for money, as indicated by the discounts, has largely fallen off.

The biddings for bills on India were held on Wednesday at the Bank of England. The amounts allotted were—to Calcutta, 15,70,000 rs.; and to Madras, 40,000 rs. The minimum price was fixed at 1*s.* 10¼*d.* on Calcutta and Madras, and tenders on those presidencies at and above that price were allotted in full. No tenders on Bombay were invited. A further decline in the demand for the means of remittance to India is here indicated; for, though Government have fixed their terms ¼*d.*, or 1 per cent., lower than on the last occasion (making a total reduction of 2 per cent. within a month), they have succeeded in selling only 161,000*l.* of bills out of the 200,000*l.* offered.

The continuous fall in the Indian exchanges has led to speculations as to the probability of either being despatched from that side to this country, but it would appear that a further considerable reduction must take place before such a movement is likely to occur.

The out-going steamer of the 12th inst., with the Bombay mail, did not take any specie.

With reference to the movements in bullion, the Indian exchanges, and the rupee paper, Messrs. Pixley, Abell and Langley report as follows in their circular of Thursday evening:—

Gold.—The arrivals during the week have again been numerous. They comprise—45,000*l.* per City of Antwerp, from New York; 180,500*l.* per Hermann, from New York; 60,000*l.* per Chicago, from New York; 236,500*l.* per City of London, from New York; 66,400*l.* per Seine, from Brazils; 45,000*l.* per Liberator, from Sydney; 13,000*l.* per Strathdon from Sydney; 11,340*l.* per Atrato, from West Indies: Total, 657,740*l.* Of the above total, about 34,000*l.* consisted of sovereigns, and these have been sent into the Bank. The balance, together with 57,000*l.* withdrawn from that establishment, has been taken for the Continent; and as the demand still continues, all immediate arrivals will also be sent away.

Silver.—The Hermann brought about 50,000*l.* from New York, and the Atrato about 80,000*l.* from the West Indies. These amounts have been sold at the rates previously current, viz.:—60¾*d.* per oz. standard for Dore, and 60½*d.* per oz. standard for fine bars. The demand is only for the Continent, shipments to the East having entirely ceased.

Mexican Dollars.—The France brought 120,000*l.* to St. Nazaire from Vera Cruz, of which 80,000*l.* is on English account. These will probably be sold at the former rate of 58¾*d.* per oz., and only for refining purposes there being no demand for China.

Exchange on India for drafts by the banks at sixty days' sight is unchanged, and may be quoted 1*s.* 10¾*d.* for Bombay, Calcutta, and Madras. The Council drafts sold yesterday show a diminished demand. The minimum was lowered to 1*s.* 10¾*d.* at which 157,000*l.* was allotted on Calcutta, 4,000*l.* on Madras, on Bombay nil.

India Government Loan Notes are unchanged. The quotations are—108 to 108¼ for Five-and-a-half per Cents.; 103 to 103¾ for Five per Cents., and 87 to 87¼ for Four per Cents.

Quotations for Bullion.—Gold—Bar gold, 77*s.* 9*d.* per oz. standard; bar gold, fine, 77*s.* 9*d.* per oz. standard; bar gold, refinable, 78*s.* per oz. standard; Spanish doubloons, 76*s.* to 77*s.* per oz., last price; South American doubloons, 73*s.* 9*d* per oz., last price; United States gold coin, 76*s.* 3*d.* per oz. last price. Silver—Bar silver, 5*s.* 03/8*d.* per oz. standard, flat; bar silver, containing 5 grains of gold, 5*s.* 0¾*d.* per oz. standard, last price; fine cake silver, 5*s.* 5½*d.* per oz., last piece; Mexican dollars, 4*s.* 10¾*d.* per oz. Quicksilver, 6*l.* 17*s.* per bottle; discount 3 per cent.

The bar silver by the English mail packet and the Mexican dollars by the French steamer were sold yesterday for the Continent at 5*s.* 03/8*d.* and 4*s.* 10¾*d.* per ounce, respectively, showing no change.

Tenders were received on Tuesday by the Oriental Bank Corporation for 758,000*l.* of New South Wales Government Five per Cent. debentures, in sums of 1,000*l.*, 500*l.*, and 100*l.* each. The amount applied for was 1,125,000*l.*, and the minimum was fixed at 94*l.* Tenders at and above 94*l.* 3*s.* received allotments in full. This operation has thus been successful.

"THE "GALLOWAY" PATENT TAPER TUBES FOR STEAM BOILERS.—These Tubes are now being used almost universally in England in the construction of Steam Boilers having either one or two flues. They greatly economise the fuel, improve the circulation, and increase the power of the boiler. They are specially adapted for introduction into old boilers, and are made with such an amount of taper as to allow of their being easily done. These Taper Tubes have been in use upwards of 16 years, and above 30,000 are now at work, and the demand is daily increasing. They can be fixed by any boiler maker, but can only be obtained from the Patentees, who will furnish full particulars and list of firms using the tubes on application. W. & J. Holloway's Pills.—No Excuse.—When thousands voluntarily assert that this medicine has freed them from formidable diseases which had ruined health and threatened life, there can be no excuse for sufferers who refuse to try it. Holloway's Pills are peculiarly adapted for remedying all irregularities in the functions of the brain, lungs, heart, stomach, liver, kidneys, and bowels. These admirable Pills exert a strengthening and constringent effect on the animal fibre, sharpen the appetite, improve digestion, invigorate the nerves, regulate the action of the liver, lungs, and heart, and beget good spirits. Such extended benefits were never before known to flow from a single source but Professor Holloway only asks the invalid, however severely afflicted to concede a trial and judge for himself.

PUREAERATED WATERS.—TREACHER & Co. (LIMITED) invite the attention of the public to the superior quality and purity of their SUPER CARBONATED WATERS.

After attentive examination of the various methods of water filtration, and of all publications of authority upon the subject, they have finally adopted (as by far the most efficient purifiers), and for a considerable time past, used, the PATENT MOULDED CARBON FILTERS; respecting which they have the pleasure to append an extract from the report of

The following experiments it appears that these Filters of compressed charcoal, possess the power of removing sulphuretted hydrogen, and other offensive and deleterious gases from impure water; that they are also capable of abstracting to a greater or less extent a variety of soluble organic and inorganic substances held dissolved in water; lastly, their mechanical action is very efficient.

The Patent Carbon Filters, therefore possess important chemical and mechanical properties. Altogether I regard them as "the most valuable and efficient Filters as yet constructed."
